

NSTU Standing/Other Committees APPLICATION FORM

WE NEED YOU
TO SHARE YOUR EXPERTISE!

Would you like to serve the NSTU at the Provincial Level?

The NSTU needs input from the widest-possible cross section of its members in order to make the most effective contribution to education. Members serve on most provincial standing committees for a maximum of two years,* so we are constantly in search of skilled and interested persons to make our committee structure operate successfully. Committee membership is open to Active and Active Reserve Members.

*NSTU Operational Procedures state: Appointment to a committee will be for one defined term of two years. In extraordinary circumstances, an extension of one year is permissible.

APPLICATIONS MUST BE RECEIVED IN CENTRAL OFFICE BY WEDNESDAY, September 3, 2025

Please complete the form in its entirety with all pertinent information so that the nominating committee can fully assess your application.

The NSTU is committed to the promotion of equity and affirmative action. Equity for under-represented groups, pursuant to current language in the Nova Scotia Human Rights Act, must be considered in the hiring of staff, secondments, the formation of committees and Internship Programs. The NSTU recognizes equity-seeking groups include, but are not limited to, aboriginal persons, racialized minority groups, persons with disabilities, women, and persons belonging to sexual orientation and/or gender identity (SOGI) minority groups. Should you choose to provide any relevant information, please indicate below:

Individuals planning to retire prior to the expiry of a committee appointment term are encouraged not to apply for that committee. (Prov. Exec. Sept. '94)
