

NOVA SCOTIA TEACHERS UNION EDUCATION RESEARCH AWARD

Purpose:

Educational Research Awards are provided to support, encourage, and recognize Members who engage in professional inquiry and research focused on educational inquiry. The Awards will be given out once per year at a ceremony at the Local level.

Eligibility

1. In order to encourage the greatest number of Members, individual Awards will be limited to five-hundred dollars ($500). No individual shall receive more than one Educational Research Award in any three (3) consecutive school year period.
2. Any educational research that focuses on topics in education at the individual, classroom, educational site, regional, or provincial level will be eligible.
3. The Awards shall be given based upon an application to the Professional Development Committee which includes an executive summary of the completed research project.
4. The Professional Development Committee will annually review and set the rubric for bestowing these Awards.
5. Award applications will be reviewed once per year in the winter. The application deadline is 4:00 p.m. on the first Wednesday of December each year.

Application Process:

1. Applications must address all items, in sequence, on the most recent form. Typed applications are preferred.
2. Ensure to explain acronyms for clarification purposes.
3. Education Research award applicants are required to submit a brief summary (maximum 4 pgs.) of research completed in the current or previous two school years, to the NSTU Professional Development Committee. This summary should include:
 - ☐ purpose
 - ☐ methodology
 - ☐ research results (including data analysis)
 - ☐ recommendations

The summary reports of award winners becomes the property of the NSTU and will be made Available to the membership Through the NSTU Web site.

Selection Process:

Research awards are granted by the Provincial Executive upon recommendation by the Provincial Professional Development Committee. Recipients are presented with their award at the earliest opportunity following them receiving notice of their award.

The PD Committee shall vet applications according to the following criteria:

- ☐ contributions of the research to education
