PLEASE NOTE:

- As per Article 27.08(i) of the TPA “Notwithstanding 27.06, if a probationary or permanent contract teacher requests parental leave at the time of request for pregnancy leave, and if the teacher is in receipt of a pregnancy or parental allowance during the summer, then the pregnancy and parental allowance beginning with the first non-teaching day in the summer shall be deferred to commence on the first day of the teaching period in the school year. For greater certainty, a teacher cannot receive more than seventeen (17) weeks leave of absence for pregnancy and more than sixty-one (61) weeks parental leave for a maximum of seventy-eight (78) weeks.”
- No teacher can receive more than a total of 17 weeks of combined pregnancy and parental allowance.
- Parental allowance is based on the standard EI parental benefit even if the teacher elects the extended EI parental benefit.
- Pregnancy leave can start at any time from a day eleven (11) weeks before the specified date of delivery to the day of actual delivery.
- If you have answered no to question 5, Articles 27.06(i) and (ii) and 27.18(i) and (iii) do not apply.
- Please advise your supervisor that you have submitted this request.
