UPDATED 2025

History of NSRTA

In 1956, a group of retired teachers sought to establish an association of retired teachers across Nova Scotia. They looked to a group of retired female educators entitled Halifax CPX for their inspiration. This organization would sow the seeds for the Retired Teachers Association which was formed on May 25, 1966. In June 2005 the Retired Teachers Association was renamed the Retired Teachers Organization of the Nova Scotia Teachers Union.

The RTO continues to work for the betterment of retired teachers throughout Nova Scotia growing from the original 25 members to about 7,400 members (2022).

MISSION STATEMENT

To safeguard and enhance retirement quality and security for our members through volunteer-based community building, advocacy, and member-focused services.

REASONS FOR JOINING THE RTO

When you become an RTO member you are adding your voice and support to a strong lobby and advocacy organization that is able to command respect because of its large membership and dedicated people.

Personal benefits of being an RTO member are:

- Maintain social contacts with retired teachers at the local Branch level
- Access to useful information from Branch Presidents at local Branch meetings
- The opportunity to express your opinions, influence decision-making and stay informed
- Access to discount promotions with your RTO membership card
- The opportunity to assist your fellow members by offering to serve on RTO and NSTU committees

When you become a RTO member you will improve the bargaining strength and effectiveness of the RTO Executive as they work on your behalf to:

- Protect and enhance your insurance and pension benefits
- Maintain open communication with the NSTU through regular Liaison Committee meetings with the NSTU
- Work (collaborate) with like-minded provincial and national organizations such as the Seniors Advisory Council of Nova Scotia (Group of IX) and the Canadian Association of Retired Teachers (ACER-CART) and the Nova Scotia Community Transportation Network on important seniors' issues
- Meet tri-annually to receive insurance information updates and provide feedback to the NSTU Insurance Trustees

MEMBERSHIP

ACTIVE MEMBER: To qualify as an active member of the Organization, a person must pay the annual fee and meet one of the following criteria:
