

CTF COMMITTEES – 2022-2023
NOMINATION FORM

DEADLINE: May 27, 2022

| COMMITTEE   | NAME AND ADDRESS   |
|---|--|
| Advisory Committee on Indigenous Education (Chairperson [member of the Board of Directors] and up to five members selected from a list of Indigenous candidates nominated by Member organizations or Affiliate Member to serve a maximum of two consecutive staggered terms of two years; meetings to be determined) | <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>Please note that a curriculum vitae and a rationale (up to 500 words) as to why you would merit this position on the committee must accompany this nomination. |

Terms of Reference (2022-2023):

1. To advise the Executive Committee on long-term directions and strategies to implement Policies and Regulations on Education and Indigenous Peoples. (2002, Reaffirmed 2006)
2. To identify long-term strategies by which CTF can be an advocate to promote and support Indigenous education. (2002, Amended 2006)
3. To identify long-term strategies by which CTF can be an advocate to promote and support teaching as a career for Indigenous People. (2002, Reaffirmed 2006)
4. To facilitate a consultative process between CTF and Member organizations/Affiliate Members concerning initiatives in Indigenous education which benefit all students and teachers. (2002, Amended 2005)
5. To identify the needs of Aboriginal educators within CTF. (2002, Reaffirmed 2006)
6. To provide educational opportunities for Member organizations and Affiliate Members to broaden awareness and build commitment to Indigenous education initiatives. (2002, Amended 2005)
7. To review current developments in Indigenous education and make appropriate recommendations to the Executive Committee. (2002, Reaffirmed 2006)

_____
Signature

_____
Organization

Please return no later than May 27, 2022 to:

Shelly Landry by e-mail at shlandry@staff.nstu.ca
Tel.: 902-479-4745