

NSTU Coronavirus Updates

March 31, 2020

The following message from NSTU president Paul Wozney will be sent to all NSTU members with NSTU email

Dear NSTU Member,

Seeing lots of folks chiming in on how they will support students post-March break. This is not wise.

Expect an update early next week. Wait for direction before we create competing versions of support that will result in parent & student confusion.

EECD is seeking our input on an approach.

Give these folks time to determine a way forward that could well mean having to retract communication & planning to parents & students you put out before break is over.

We know you care deeply & want to do the best by your kiddos. We get it. Nonetheless, please press pause & WAIT for instruction so our efforts are aligned & support one another in every RCE/CSAP & community.

We don't need competition right now. Collaboration & unity is key.

Please share this email with your personal teacher friends.

Patience. We'll do best by proceeding together. Enjoy the rest of your break!

All my best,

Paul Wozney,
President, Nova Scotia Teachers Union
