

CTF COMMITTEES – 2023-2024
NOMINATION FORM

DEADLINE: May 26, 2023

COMMITTEE	NAME AND ADDRESS
Advisory Committee on the Status of Women (Chairperson [member of the Board of Directors] and up to five members named by the Executive Committee from names submitted by Member organizations or Affiliate Member to serve a maximum of two consecutive staggered terms of two years; meetings to be determined)	<hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/> Please note that a curriculum vitae and a rationale (up to 500 words) as to why you would merit this position on the committee must accompany this nomination.
Terms of Reference (2023-2024): <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To advise the Executive Committee on long-term directions, strategies, policies and regulations that relate to the status of women in education. (2006) 2. To assist and advise the Executive Committee about the needs and concerns of women in education. (2006) 3. To advise the Executive of the values of program activities which would help CTF to accomplish its policy and objectives in the area of women in education. (2006) 4. To identify trends in education pertaining to women in education and to suggest appropriate programs and research activities. (2006) 5. To identify long-term strategies by which CTF can be an advocate to promote and support initiatives relating to issues that affect women and children. (2006) 6. To develop a consultative process and networks between CTF and Member organizations/Affiliate Members concerning initiatives related to issues concerning women and children. (2006)

Signature

Organization

Please return no later than May 26, 2023 to:
Shelly Landry by e-mail at shlandry@staff.nstu.ca
 Tel.: 902-479-4745