Natalie MacIsaac

for NSTU President 2022

pour la présidente du NSTU 2022

“A beacon of positivity...”

“A strong work ethic, knowledge, energy, and personality to lead NSTU members forward!”

We know what the big issues are. To see improvements with our pension and salary, with our working conditions, and with our marking and prep time, we have to work together. Gains in these areas will lead to job viability and will create a more enticing profession. We need to focus on us: members who feel part of a union where all voices are represented at our table, and a union that encompasses and promotes our diverse perspectives. We need to believe in and rise to our potential as a more united body. I am the leader who will build us up and fight for you with pride, passion and poise. I'm asking for your trust. I'm asking for your vote.

Members say Natalie MacIsaac:

has been a model of leadership since we initially worked together developing the English 12: African Heritage course for the Department of Education and Early Childhood Development fifteen years ago. It was then I first witnessed her intelligence, insight, and ability to both work with, and lead, fellow teachers in professional growth. As my union sibling, I always saw and appreciated Natalie's work in various NSTU roles. Most importantly, though working in different locals and different boards, I saw Natalie's ability to connect with many NSTU siblings throughout the province. This is an invaluable asset, and one I value highly for our next NSTU president to possess. Natalie MacIsaac has consistently displayed a strong work ethic, knowledge, energy, and personality to lead NSTU members forward!

Malik Adams,
Guidance Counsellor/Africentric Practitioner

is a beacon of positivity, her presence is welcoming and supportive, making her an excellent choice for NSTU President. Natalie's approachability, along with her fundamental understanding of fairness and equity, will allow her to represent, support and steer the leadership of the NSTU with determination and finesse as we move forward. Natalie is well spoken, speaking her mind clearly and with the passion and experience of a seasoned teacher and long-time supporter of the union. I have confidence that Natalie MacIsaac is an excellent choice as the next president of the Nova Scotia Teachers Union.

Lynnette Babin, President, Antigonish Local

is the leader we need and want. She understands the importance of collaboration and relationships. While serving with her on the provincial executive she has been a strong voice for our profession and understands the need for a unified voice for NSTU members. I am confident that as president she will continue to bring our members together, build up our profession and support our members through the good and the bad times. Natalie's strength, knowledge, confidence and charisma will move the NSTU and teaching profession forward.
